Sanaz Khodaverdian	My name is Sanaz Khodaverdian I migrated to New Zealand in 2002. I completed my midwifery training at Auckland University of Technology. Being a midwife is a very special career and I consider it a privilege working with women. The uniqueness of maternity service in New Zealand made me more passionate to become a midwife and to offer continuity of care to women. I enjoy the satisfaction that comes from walking the journey to motherhood with a woman and her family and feel that being in a midwife...	Mobile: +64-212682800
Tilly Porter	Hello there! Congratulations on your pregnancy. I am happy to care for you during your pregnancy, labour and birth and for the six weeks postpartum. I work in partnership with you and endeavour that this period of your life will reflectively be one of the happiest times ever. I have stopped running a clinic as I prefer to do visits to lady's homes usually on the North Shore, West of Auckland and up towards Helensville. I love home birthing, waterbirths and will deliver in a primary setting a...	Mobile: +64-212125565 Phone type: Phone number
Amy Brown	Kia Ora! Congratulations on your pregnancy! What an exciting time. I am truly passionate about working with women during their pregnancy, labour and birth and postnatal period. Every pregnancy and childbirth experience is different and I recognise that in my care, working alongside you and your family, sharing knowledge and allowing you to make the decisions for you and your baby's future. I am based on the North Shore in Auckland and hold my clinics in Birkdale.	Mobile: 0212168088
Jenny Liu	Congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Jenny and I am a registered midwife. I have worked in Auckland City Hospital and North Shore hospital. I am now an LMC midwife based in North Shore, central and west Auckland. I believe in the physiological process of birth and I am passionate about working with women and their families to achieve a positive birth experience, ensuring that you are fully informed of all your options. Matty Van Oosterom	I have been a midwife for 14 years. Becoming a parent and the birth of a baby is one of the most amazing and empowering experiences a woman will have in her life. My goal is for every woman to have a positive birth experience. Every woman deserves good care and have the opportunity to achieve a normal birth. I have a particular interest in normal birth including homebirths and waterbirths. I work in a practice where all midwives practise with the same views.	Mobile: +64-212246191
Karen Lovelock	Congratulations on your pregnancy and the exciting times ahead. I qualified as a Registered Midwife in 1991, working in the UK for 13 years in a busy NHS Women's Centre covering all aspects of midwifery including community. I have been working as an LMC since moving to New Zealand in 2004 with my family. I enjoy the opportunity of being part of the whole childbirth experience from the initial booking visit right through to those exceptional first few weeks with a newborn. Being a mum of three bo... Kathryn Powell	I am a mother of two beautiful children Emma and Max, and it was having them that helped me realise my passion for midwifery. I trained at AUT and went on to work as a core midwife at North Shore Hospital before choosing to work as an LMC midwife and joining Kate Sheppard. My midwifery philosophy is that birth is a natural event and I believe in helping families to have an enriching experience as possible in this amazing time in their lives. I advocate and support all women in whatever experie...	Fax: 09 489-1473 Mobile: +64-21855524 Phone type: Phone number Work: +64-21855524
Helena Humphries	I worked as a Registered Nurse in Auckland for five years prior to traveling to the UK to commence my Midwifery Training. After qualifying as a Midwife in 1995, I worked in a very busy teaching hospital in Southampton, which enable me to gain considerable experience in all areas of Midwifery. I returned to New Zealand in 2002 and after working briefly at North Shore Hospital I joined Hibiscus Coast Midwives and have worked hard to build up the practice to what it is today. Jodi Guthrie-Mart	I have been a midwife since 2002, working in Cornwall in the UK until I moved to NZ in 2005. I live on the hibiscus coast with my 3 children Aaron 15, Sophie 3 and Harry 5 months old. The reason I chose to be a Midwife was to help women have a positive experience of pregnancy and childbirth. My own life experiences provided an invaluable insight into the responsibility of becoming a parent at a young age. It is a privilege to care for women at such a special time in their lives. I feel th...	Mobile: +64-21462461

Joey Tao	My name is Joey Tao, I'm a self-employed midwife providing continuity of maternity care to meet the unique needs for women and her families. I have had 3 year experience of working as a staff midwife at North Shore Hospital. With accumulated experience, I become to know more about childbirth in my own way and would like to extend my care to a wider community. I deliver babies in north, west and central Auckland. I believe childbirth is a normal and physiological life event. I work with women i...	Home: +64-211163103 Mobile: +64-211163103 Work: +64-211163103
Catherine Clarke	Hi, I am a NZ trained nurse and UK trained midwife. I have worked in all settings and 5 years ago decided to work as an LMC and am loving the change. I usually look after 3 women a month and like to keep them local so I can provide great postnatal care. I am well trained in Breastfeeding and love the natural way to give birth, however always support the woman and her family in their birth of choice...after all it is you who own this time. :) I am married with 2 lovely girls, 16yrs and 13yrs, w...
