Terri Jury	I spent 3 years at Whangarei Hospital working as a core midwife before changing roles to become an LMC (Lead Maternity Carer) My clinic is based in Wellsford where I do antenatal visits. I feel that my role is to provide support & guidance through your pregnancy/birth and postnatal journey. Aiming for a safe, fun, happy and healthy experience. You should make your own informed choices during this time in your life and I am here to help you with decisions and offer advice. I belie...	Home: +64-94237350 Mobile: +64-212371856
Trudy Thomson	Congratulations on your pregnancy and thank you for taking the time to visit my page. I live in Bream Bay and welcome enquiries from women living in Ruakaka, Waipu, One Tree Point and southern Whangarei such as Maungatapere, Mata, Maungakamea, Mangapai and Otaika. Like midwives, every woman, pregnancy and birth is unique. Whether you are a first time mum-to-be or extending your family, pregnancy is an honour. It's a time to surround yourself with those who have faith in you, will protect y...	Mobile: +64-273612721
Joy Pooley (pyle)	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I'm a lucky woman to have worked with mums, dads and families for the last 20 years in Northland fully across the scope of practice. I've managed to work in the hospital whilst having my own 4 pregnancies, taken antenatal classes for 5 years with parents centre, and a good 15 years of LMC in the community as well. I take a fairly low caseload so I can give optimal care to my families. I'm a big communicator, and really enjoy running my own practice with the ...	Mobile: +64-21565805
Tracey Manning	I am a self-employed midwife in Whangarei, working from the Mill Road midwives rooms with a wonderful bunch of very supportive midwives. I have grown up in Northland, initially working as an Early Childhood Teacher and then training to be a midwife. I am very passionate about the women of Northland and feel we have a really special unique area here. I have a passion for the 'natural' and love home births, however, I just enjoy working with women and their families to provide care that works for ...	Work: 0226483977
Janine Woodward	I was born in Whangarei and love living in Northland by the coast. My work is based from Mill Road Midwives in Whangarei along with a fantastic group of midwives. I trained as a Registered nurse after finishing school. I then married and have two lovely daughters and two vigorous boys. I enjoy the journey of getting to know women and their families and providing care to suit their particular needs. I plan my caseload so I can spend time with my family over the summer break and only book wom...	Home: +64-94363283 Mobile: +64-210799514
Annetta Davis	I have worked as a midwife in the Whangarei Area for over fifteen years. I love working as a midwife in Whangarei and really enjoy meeting people from all walks of life. I am experienced in hospital, home birth and water birth. The most favourite part of my job is helping a woman and her partner transition to being parents and meeting their baby for the first time. It is a really privileged job to be in and I feel very lucky to share the adventure of new parenthood with my clients.	Mobile: 027 4484 863
Courtney Jensen	Kia ora. I was born and raised in the Bay of Plenty but moved to the beautiful Bay of Islands this year, where I have the privilege of working as a midwife. I believe in women's ability to give birth and am passionate about keeping birth as normal as possible. I want you to feel safe, empowered and informed throughout your journey. This is your body, your baby, your whānau; so it is important to me that you are supported to make your own informed decisions. I provide shared care with another mid...	Mobile: +64-272922259
Romany Beaumont	Kia Ora and congratulations. Becoming a mother, a parent and building a successful loving whānau is something I am committed to helping you with. I am privileged to work with women in the Far North to become amazing mothers. I believe confident successful mothers create a loving environment to nurture our children and their futures and what better place to start than at the beginning. I am committed to supporting your and your whānau decisions to provide the best outcome for you. Having taken ti...	Work: +64-272439670
Robyn Henare	Kia Ora, I am a midwife practising in the Bay of Islands and surrounding areas. I consider myself extremely fortunate to be caring for women and whānau in the area that I was born and raised. I work with Nicole Pihema and together we alternate the task of clinic and being on call. We have antenatal clinics in Kawakawa, Kaikohe, Kerikeri and Paihia. Many women come from outlying areas including: Taheke, Karetu, Motatau, Okaihau and Rawhiti. We also provide Home births and midwifery care for women...	Mobile: 021834911

Arnika Matchett	Kia ora and congratulations! I am a registered midwife living in magical Mangawhai. I have over 7 years of midwifery practice experience in South Auckland, Mangawhai and surrounding areas. Please note I currently offer postnatal care only (I can care for you during part or all of your postnatal period), assist with births and work shifts at Wellsford Birthing Unit. I have a degree in Health Science from the UoA and a degree in Midwifery from AUT. For the first few years of my career I worked fu...	Mobile: +64-211561632
Anne Nichol	Congratulations on your pregnancy. I have been a midwife for over 13 years providing care for women in the Whangarei and surrounding rural areas. Prior to this I was a Registered Nurse working in a variety of Community settings in Northland. I have worked as a LMC and in the hospital as a Midwife I support women to birth in the surroundings of their choice, either at home or in hospital. I am a Mother of four adults and have 4 grandchildren. I look forward to meeting you and supporting you t...	Cell: 0272772429
Catherine Marsh	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I work together with Melissa Dunn at Mill Rd Midwives. We have a shared caseload which means our clients get the best of both worlds. You will get to know both of us through out the pregnancy, birth and afterwards. We believe that pregnancy and childbirth is a natural life event and we try to keep it as normal as possible and still provide the best care when things become abnormal. We have a particular passion for water birth and homebirths. We are able to ...	Mobile: +64-274137668
Juleigh Parker	After training as a nurse and midwife in the UK I emigrated to New Zealand where I have practised as both a self employed and DHB employed midwife, and as a midwifery educator. I spent many years working in South Auckland and am now living in Northland. As well as LMC practice, I work part time as midwife educator for AUT. My focus is primary care as I believe in the power of women to birth their babies naturally, I also believe that the most effective care is grounded in a strong partnership be... Marie Helene Chopin-McCarthy	Welcome, My name is Marie and I have 27 years experience as a midwife both working in hospitals and as a lead maternity carer. As your Midwife I will provide continuity of care and work in partnership with you during your pregnancy and, if needed, refer to an obstetrician if any concerns arise. I came to New Zealand in 2002 where I discovered the midwifery I have always wanted to practise. It was the New Zealand College of Midwives "Partnership in Care" philosophy that I thought was a wond...	Mobile: 0800 THEMIDWIFE Phone: +64-94377434
Jo Taylor (Henwood)	Congratulations! My name is Jo Taylor and I am a registered midwife working in Whangarei. I am the mother of 3 children and following my amazing birth experiences and transition to motherhood, I decided to fulfill a dream of becoming a midwife. Jana Scott	Hello! My name is Jana. I am a qualified, registered midwife currently based at Whangarei Midwives Group Clinic in the city I was born and raised in. I am the proud mother of two teens aged 16 and 19. I thoroughly enjoyed the whole process of pregnancy and childbirth myself, and was lucky enough to birth both my babies at home. These experiences and an interest in natural health eventually led me to my chosen career as a midwife. I am passionate about promoting natural birth and a healthy preg...	Mobile: +64-272119178
Caro Foster	Congratulations on your pregnancy. I am passionate about providing individualised care from early pregnancy through to 6 weeks after the birth of your baby. I fully support and promote normal birth but will continue your care if an induction of labour is needed or an epidural is required at Whangarei Hospital. I live in Kerikeri and provide care to women and their families throughout most of the mid north area. Postnatal care is at home and pregnancy care is at the nearest clinic or at home by a... Kathy Carter-Lee	As a midwife, my aim is to support women to have a positive experience, before, during, and after the birth of their child. It is important to me to treat women as individuals, to inform and support them in making choices. I have had a wide experience as a midwife since I qualified in 1984, in Britain and in aid agencies around the world. I returned to NZ with my husband (my best friend) to work as an LMC midwife. I take clients from Warkworth in the south, to Paparoa in the north. I support...	Home: +64-94256749 Mobile: +64-21425115 Work: +64-21425115
Justine O'Dwyer	I have lived in the Bay of Islands since 2003, working both in the community as an LMC midwife and also as a core midwife through the DHB. I work with another midwife Manning Reynolds sharing responsibility of the women we work with.
