

Name: Region: Northland
Birthplace: Area:
Month: Printed: 10/26/2021

NAME	ABOUT ME	PHONE
Lisa Woodward	Congratulations on your pregnancy. My name is Lisa Woodward, I am a midwife covering the north and west of Auckland. My personal philosophy is that the process of childbirth is a normal physiological event perfectly designed by nature to bring babies into the world. It is an instinctive experience that has rhythm and pace, the process of labour works well when the woman is well supported. Women should be encouraged to be active participants in all aspects of their pregnancy and birth. When infor...	Mobile: +64-277286952
Jana Scott	Hello! My name is Jana. I am a qualified, registered midwife currently based at Whangarei Midwives Group Clinic in the city I was born and raised in. I am the proud mother of two children aged 18 and 21. I thoroughly enjoyed the whole process of pregnancy and childbirth myself, and was lucky enough to birth both my babies at home. These experiences and an interest in natural health eventually led me to my chosen career as a midwife. I am passionate about promoting natural birth and a healthy p...	Mobile: +64-272119178
Janine Woodward	I was born in Whangarei and love living in Northland at Parua Bay. My work is based from Mill Road Midwives in Whangarei along with a fantastic group of midwives. I trained as a Registered nurse after finishing school. I then married and have two lovely daughters and two very tall boys. I enjoy the journey of getting to know women and their families and providing care to suit their particular needs. I can provide birth care both at home and in hospital, as women choose. I share my caseloa...	Mobile: 02108439933
Ruby Meiklejohn	Just as a woman's heart knows how and when to pump, her lungs to inhale, and her hand to pull back from fire, so she knows when and how to give birth. ~ Virginia Di Orio. Haere Mai and Congratulations! Birth is an empowering and changing time of a woman's life and I am so honoured to walk this journey with you! Birth is a normal process and I believe in a woman's mana and ability to birth. Therefore, I care for wāhine who are planning for a low-intervention birth in the comfort of their ...	Mobile: +64-278594401
Anne Nichol	Congratulations on your pregnancy. I have been a Midwife for over 18 years providing care for women in the Whangarei and surrounding rural areas. Prior to this I was a Registered Nurse working in a variety of Community settings in Northland. I have worked as a LMC and in the hospital as a Midwife. I support women to birth in the surroundings of their choice, either at home or in hospital. I am a Mother of four adults and have 6 grandchildren. I look forward to meeting you and supporting you thr...	Cell: 0272772429
Tari Norris	Kia Ora! My name is Tari Norris and I am a registered Midwife working in the Whangārei area. My whānau are from Whangārei and Te Tai Tokerau and I love living in my hometown of Whangārei with my husband and kids. Pregnancy, labour and birth are unique experiences for each woman and whānau and I offer care in both the home and hospital settings. I work in partnership with you and your whānau throughout your pregnancy, labour and birth and up to 6 weeks postnatally. My midwifery practice p...	Mobile: +64-276008492
Emma Hau	Kia Ora, Congratulations on your hapūtanga. I have recently relocated from the Taranaki area to practise as a Midwife in the beautiful Bay of Islands. I am supported and work alongside Peowharangi midwives to provide continuity of care to woman throughout pregnancy, labour, birth and six weeks after your baby is born. I have Antenatal clinics in Kawakawa, Kaikohe, Kerikeri and Paihia, with the availability to offer home visits when necessary. Planning your place of birth is unique to every Wā...	Mobile: 0204 097 2851
Courtney Jensen	Kia Ora! I was born in the Bay of Plenty, where I also began my midwifery career. In 2019 I pursued my dream to live & work in the beautiful Bay of Islands & I feel so lucky to call Opuā home. My aim is for every māmā I care for to feel informed, supported, safe, and empowered throughout her pregnancy, labour & birth, and early motherhood. I have a passion for home birth & water birth but I strongly believe that women will birth best where they are most comfortable; so I support women ...
Jo Taylor	Congratulations! My name is Jo Taylor and I am a registered midwife working in Whangārei. I am the mother of 3 children and following my amazing birth experiences and transition to motherhood, I decided to fulfill a dream of becoming a midwife. I am passionate about providing care and education throughout pregnancy, childbirth and the postnatal period, whilst encouraging women to make informed decisions regarding their care and experience. It is a great privilege to be involved in such a per...	Mobile: +64-21714889
Bethany Smith	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I am Bethany. I was raised in Whangarei since a young age. My passion in life is midwifery. I love the fact I am blessed enough to encourage, support and help you grow from a woman into a mother, seeing you through antenatal, labour, birth and postnatal period. People always ask me why I became a midwife, I think it's the point when after the baby is born and the mother is staring down at her beautiful baby and there is just this perfect peaceful moment of the...	Mobile: 020 4073 8849
Nicole Pihema	Kia Ora, what a privilege it is to live and work in the same hapori in which I was born in. I work in partnership with Robyn Henare who also can whakapapa to this rohe. We work together providing care to you and your pēpi through your hapūtanga and beyond. We predominately work with whānau Māori by alternating the task of clinic and being on call, that way you will meet us both throughout your pregnancy and one of us will attend you for your birth. This way we can provide continuity of ca...	Mobile: +64-21834911

NAME	ABOUT ME	PHONE
Tina Sherman	I am a born and bred Northlander having grown up in the mid north. I did my general nursing before I went off travelling and did my Midwifery in Perth, Western Australia in 1988/1989. After my eldest son was born we returned home to Whangarei where I worked at Whangarei Maternity unit for several years before going out into community practice in 1995 with Don Ballard as my midwifery partner. I work from Mill Road Midwives with a wonderful group of midwives in a very supportive environment. I be...	Mobile: +64-212861123 Work: +64-94375570
Denise McCormack	Hi my name is Denise and congratulations on your exciting news. I have been a midwife for over 20 years working in hospitals, birthing units and supporting women to birth their baby at home. It would be a privilege to walk this journey with you to parenthood. I respect the physiology of birth and my passion is supporting you to achieve the birth that you want, in the place in which you are most comfortable. I enjoy sharing information and aim to tailor your pregnancy care to your individual ...	Mobile 0273445089: +64-273445089
Deina Payne	Tēnā koe, congratulations on your haputanga! Ko Ngāpuhi, Ngāti Raukawa, Ngāti Pākeha ōku iwi. I am blessed to be supported in this mahi by my husband & tamariki, along with amazing colleagues at Mill Road Midwives & across Te Tai Tokerau. I am a fiercely passionate about Māori women's health. When women are well, so too is the whānau, hapu, iwi & whenua. Whether this is your first or fifteenth pēpi, every pregnancy is an opportunity to rediscover intrinsic mana & reclaim traditional birth...	Mobile: 021 259 7901
Juleigh Parker	After training as a nurse and midwife in the UK I emigrated to New Zealand where I have practised as both a self employed and DHB employed midwife, and as a midwifery educator. I spent many years working in South Auckland and am now living in Northland. My focus is primary care as I believe in the power of women to birth their babies naturally, and that the most effective care is grounded in a strong partnership between a woman and her midwife based on clear and open communication. I am happy t...	Mobile: +64-211543026
Romany Beaumont	Kia Ora and congratulations. Becoming a mother, a parent and building a successful loving whānau is something I am committed to helping you with. I am privileged to work with women in the Far North to become amazing mothers. I believe confident successful mothers create a loving environment to nurture our children and their futures and what better place to start than at the beginning. I am committed to supporting your and your whānau decisions to provide the best outcome for you. Having taken ti...	Work: +64-272439670
Catherine Marsh	Xmas Babies! We have some spaces available for early December now. Return clients please enquire. Congratulations on your pregnancy! I work together with Melissa Dunn at Mill Rd Midwives. We have a shared caseload which means our clients get the best of both worlds. You will get to know both of us through out the pregnancy, birth and afterwards. We believe that pregnancy and childbirth is a natural life event and we try to keep it as normal as possible and still provide the best care when t...	Mobile: 021643943
Angela Yendell	Kia Ora I am a registered midwife working in the Whangarei Area, residing at the beautiful Tutukaka Coast. I am working from Mill Road Midwives. I provide care to women for hospital or home birthing.	Mobile: +64-272936437
Terri Jury	I worked at Whangarei Hospital as a core midwife before changing to a community based LMC (Lead Maternity Carer). My clinic is based in Wellsford where I do antenatal visits. I think my role is to provide support & guidance through your pregnancy/birth and postnatal journey. Aiming for a safe, fun, happy and healthy experience. You should make your own informed choices during this time in your life and I am here to serve as a sounding board, help you with decisions and offer advice. ...	Mobile: +64-212371856
Jane Tapper	Your journey into motherhood is incredibly important. Your experiences on this journey, particularly your birthing experience can impact on the rest of your life. Keeping this in mind my focus is to provide safe midwifery care based on current research and your individual needs. As a midwife I have worked across the spectrum, providing midwifery care in the homebirth setting to the complex tertiary level care environment. I am a mother of adult children and have been a midwife for 20 years.	Mobile: 0273587262
Joanne McEwan	Kia Ora. Congratulations on your pregnancy. My name is Jo, I am currently practising as an LMC catering for the Far North where I have lived for nearly 30 years. I love working as a midwife where I am passionate about ensuring our Far North women and whānau have access to quality maternity care. While working alongside you during this exciting time I can help support you in your decisions around yourself, pēpi and whānau throughout pregnancy, birth and beyond.	Mobile: +64-211817949
Laney Hall	Kia Ora, my name is Laney (Melaynee). I have been married for 19 years and we have 3 handsome fully-grown young men. I have always had a passion for women and the amazing ability their body has to birth their baby. I feel strongly about women gaining back their right to birth their baby themselves where possible. Throughout history the birth of our babies has become more and more medicalised. And with that medicalisation a women's authority over her own body and birthing has diminished. ...	Mobile: +64-27 258 5459 Work: +64-9 437 5570 Free Call: +64-800 00 00 77
Tracey Manning	I am a self-employed midwife in Whangarei, working from the Mill Road midwives rooms with a wonderful bunch of very supportive midwives. Maree Morgan and I work in a shared caseload system so you have us both as your midwife and get to know us both through the pregnancy. I have grown up in Northland, initially working as an Early Childhood Teacher and then training to be a midwife. I am very passionate about the women of Northland and feel we have a really special unique area here. I have a pa...	Work: 0272588721
Joy Pooley	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I'm a lucky woman to have worked with mums, dads and families for the last 20 years in Northland fully across the scope of practice. I've managed to work in the hospital whilst having my own 4 pregnancies, taken antenatal classes for 5 years with Parents Centre, and a good 15 years of LMC in the community as well. I take a fairly low caseload so I can give optimal care to my families. I'll be starting with a new practice partner in Feb, Meg Hinchliffe. We ...	Mobile: 0800824483

NAME	ABOUT ME	PHONE
Michaela Douglas	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I have been a Midwife for 11 years with a broad spectrum of experience. I have worked across all the areas of midwifery from rural birthing units to high-risk care in hospital settings both in NZ and overseas. I am currently based in the Far North just out of Kaitaia, I look after women wanting to birth at Kaitaia Hospital and at home around the Northland area. I have a passion for working with women and providing care that is woman-centred. I believe...	mobile: 0226023811
Sarah O'Donnell	Kia Ora. I spent the early years of my career in Nursing. Working in Surgical, High Dependency and Oncology Units before training in my lifelong passion of Midwifery. Over the last 16 years I've held many different roles across the Midwifery scope, including: Community Midwife for the DHB; Teaching Antenatal Classes both with Adults and at the Teen School; Employed core Midwife in Post Natal and Birthing Suite at Whangarei Hospital; LMC with Team Midwives and locum work for other Midwives. ...	Mobile: 0800MIDWIVES
Justine O'Dwyer	I have lived in the Bay of Islands since 2003, working both in the community as an LMC midwife and also as a core midwife through the DHB. I work with another midwife Alaina Howes sharing responsibility of the women we work with. We are happy to support women who choose to birth at home and at Bay of Islands Maternity Unit, and if needed we will transfer with you through to Whangarei Base Hospital. As a midwife I believe that the journey to motherhood is unique to each woman and pregnancy. I ...	Mobile: +64-275500166
Alaina Howes	I provide maternity care in the beautiful Bay of Islands, living in Kerikeri since 1994 raising my three (now young adult) children in our wonderful community. I work with another midwife Justine O'Dwyer sharing responsibility of our caseload. We are happy to support women who choose to birth at home, BOI Hospital, and if needed we will transfer with you through to Whangarei Hospital. We share similar philosophies and believe each pregnancy and woman's journey to motherhood is unique. We aim to...	Mobile: 0275500166
Megan Hinchliffe	Kia ora I've spent the last 7 years working at Whangarei hospital as a midwife. Now that my kids are both at school I'm excited for this new challenge of sharing a caseload with Joy Pooley. This means we can give give optimum care but also have down time with our families. I'm born n bred in Whangarei and spent 10 years away adventuring around the globe. I'm passionate about providing safe, personalised and informed care to Mum's, Dad's, and families. Having worked in the hospital, I hav...	Phone: 0800824483
Tracey Wiles	I have always wanted to be a midwife & I love sharing with women in this amazing journey. My experience with my own 6 children and 5 grandchildren underpins my belief in women to trust in their ability to birth their babies - I have a very normal approach to pregnancy & childbirth. We believe in the natural process & letting nature take its course. We love waterbirths & homebirths & also support women who wish to birth in the hospitals - I am flexible. Usual areas covered - North Shore, Albany...	Mobile 021 255 7758: +64-212557758
Melissa Dunn	About Me Congratulations on your pregnancy! I work together with Catherine Marsh at Mill Rd Midwives. We have a shared caseload which means our clients get the best of both worlds. You will get to know both of us through out the pregnancy, birth and afterwards. We believe that pregnancy and childbirth is a natural life event and we try to keep it as normal as possible and still provide the best care when things become abnormal. We have a particular passion for water birth and homebirths. We a...	Work: 021643943
Therasa Job	Kia Ora Congratulation on your pregnancy. My name is Therasa Job and I am a registered midwife living in the Far North for around 6 years. Prior to midwifery I spent 12 years in the New Zealand Defence Force as a Medic which I feel complements my rural practice. I am a mum of two incredible young boys. I love and enjoy the individualised needs of every wāhine and whānau and I thrive to ensure that the care I provide is such. I have a natural approach to midwifery care and I pride myself on ...	Mobile: 0224155940
Tania Currie	I am a local midwife raised in the FarNorth, with 30 years midwifery experience, 20 of those years have been practising in and around Kaitaia. I particularly enjoy helping mamas and their whānau not only birth safely, but transition into parenthood and our little community. Our practice at Hapuora offers a fantastic choice of Māori midwives, home birth midwives and waterbirth midwives. Just be in touch and we will help find the exact fit for you.	Mobile: 021-048-9793
Shelley Tweedie	Congratulations, I work in the beautiful far north - and would love to hear from you. I work from Kaitaia and support women to birth at the Kaitaia Maternity unit as well as Home. As women, we are amazing vessels in the way our bodies were designed to grow and birth our babies. I absolutely love my job which is getting to know you over the course of your pregnancy and supporting you in your decisions, whilst promoting health for you and your baby. I will provide care from when you book with m...	Work: 022 135 2212
Ayla Witehira	Kia Ora and congratulations on your pregnancy. My name is Ayla Witehira I'm a registered midwife based here in Whangārei. I grew up in the heart of my Iwi, Ngāti Wai, and my connection and love for midwifery runs deep. I will always aim to do my best to ensure a positive pregnancy, labour, birth and postnatal experience. As we connect and create a partnership, I will provide evidence-based, up to date care, individualising it to suit you and your whānau. I am approachable, open, caring and respe...	Mobile: 0800643948
Sean Hamilton	Nau mai, Haere Mai. Tēnā Koe, Ko Seanie ahau, No Te Aupōuri, Te Rarawa, Ngati Kahu me Ngati Kahungunu ki Wairoa ahau. E noho ana ahau ki Kaitaia i Muriwhenua. Kia ora koutou, my name is Sean or Seanie, I am a Māori midwife working in the beautiful place I grew up in, the Far North. Safe traditional and natural birthing practices are a part of my philosophy. I am very humbled and privileged to be supporting whānau and their new pēpi into Te Ao Marama and I look forward to hearing from y...	Home: +64-2102486896 Mobile: +021-02486896

NAME	ABOUT ME	PHONE
Amy Brown	Kia Ora! I have worked as an LMC midwife for a number of years now, after having trained in Auckland. I am passionate about woman centred care, sharing information with you along this journey so you can make the decisions that are right for you and your whānau. I have clinics in both Wellsford and Mangawhai and happy to support you in your birth at home, Warkworth Birthing Centre, Wellsford Birthing Centre and Whangārei Hospital. I cover Wellsford north to the Brynderwyns and Mangawhai to...	Mobile: 0212168088
Sharmaine Poata	Kia Ora, ko Sharmaine Poata toku ingoa - Māori Midwife from Whangaroa. I started my midwifery career as a hospital midwife, but the majority of my role has been spent as a busy remote rural midwife in our Far/Mid North communities. I am still humbled by the experiences privileged to me by Hapū māmā & their whānau, and also grateful for my own whānau who support me and the demands of my profession. I provide whānau-centred care in pregnancy, labour & birth and after birth - covering all Kaeo/Whan...	Mobile: 0223655800
Melanie Brownlee	Congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Melanie and I am a LMC Midwife and a Registered Nurse. I am passionate about women's health, particularly in pregnancy, labour & birth and the postnatal period. It is a joy to share in the journey with women and partners as their families grow. Providing individualised care, unique to each woman is important in ensuring an enjoyable transition to becoming a mother. We have an admired maternity system in New Zealand where midwives like ...	Mobile: +64-212633133
Lou McRae Shepherd	Hi my name is Lou, I am a mum of four awesome kids, two of my own and 2 step kids. 8 years ago I decided to change careers to become a midwife, I have greatly enjoyed this change and I truly feel blessed to be part of your amazing birthing journeys. My midwifery philosophy is to simply provide quality care, and be "with women" throughout their pregnancy, birth and postnatally. I believe that pregnancy and birth are a normal part of our life cycle and I honour this journey, and am committed to th...	Mobile: 0275225305
Annetta Davis	I have worked as a midwife in the Whangarei Area for over twenty years. I love working as a midwife in Whangarei and really enjoy meeting people from all walks of life. I am experienced in hospital, home birth and water birth. The most favourite part of my job is helping a woman and her partner transition to being parents and meeting their baby for the first time. It is a really privileged job to be in and I feel very lucky to share the adventure of new parenthood with my clients. I share my ca...	Mobile: 02108439933
Maran Greenwood	Kia ora precious māmā I provide holistically minded midwifery care during pregnancy, labour and birth (home, hospital, water) and postnatal. With deep respect for Te Tiriti o Waitangi, I work in partnership with women to protect and support natural pregnancy, labour, birth and the post-natal transitions with whānau and newborn care. I am passionate about women's rights, informed consent and sharing research and information. Midwifery care in Aotearoa is world-leading and it is an honour to be...	Work: +6409-273586708
Marie Helene Chopin-McCarthy	Welcome, My name is Marie and I have 27 years experience as a midwife both working in hospitals and as a lead maternity carer. As your Midwife I will provide continuity of care and work in partnership with you during your pregnancy and, if needed, refer to an obstetrician if any concerns arise. I came to New Zealand in 2002 where I discovered the midwifery I have always wanted to practise. It was the New Zealand College of Midwives "Partnership in Care" philosophy that I thought was a word...	Mobile: 0800 THEMIDWIFE Phone: +64-274720077
Creaghan Mitchell	I was born and raised on the North Shore and moved onto the Coast over 10 years ago. I have been practising midwifery for over 18 years. I feel that birth is an extremely personal and powerful time and women need to feel confident and supported with the choices they make. I am passionate about primary birthing - at home, at Warkworth Birthing Unit and at North Shore Hospital, I am happy to facilitate water births and/or support women who need a higher level of care with obstetric input. Birth can...	Mobile: +64-21901550
Kathy Carter-Lee	As a midwife, my aim is to support women to have a positive experience, before, during, and after the birth of their child. It is important to me to treat women as individuals, to inform and support them in making choices. I have had a wide experience as a midwife since I qualified in 1984, in Britain and in aid agencies around the world. I returned to NZ with my husband (my best friend) to work as an LMC midwife. I take clients from Warkworth in the south, to Paparoa in the north. I support...	Home: +64-94256749 Mobile: +64-21425115 Work: +64-21425115
Robyn Henare	Kia Ora, I practise in the Bay of Islands and surrounding areas. I consider myself extremely fortunate to be caring for women and whānau in the area that I whakapapa to. I work with Nicole Pihema and together we alternate the task of clinic and being on call. This way you will have ample opportunity to get to know us both throughout your pregnancy and one of us will attend you in labour. We have antenatal clinics in Kawakawa, Kaikohe, Kerikeri and Paihia. Many women come from outlying areas incl...	Mobile: 021834911
Karen Walker	Ngati Toa, Ngati Porou and Pakeha. Kia Ora, I am an experienced midwife of over 20 years experience. I have worked both in the community and in a tertiary Hospital. I offer Home births, Births at Taumarunui Maternity. I also hold access to Te Awamutu birthing and Waikato Hospital I work alongside lovely colleagues, midwifery and medical, so that all your needs are taken care of. I am the mother of 10 children whom are currently growing and leaving the nest.	Mobile: +64-221972645
Don (Rhonda) Ballard	Kia ora. I am married to Stewart and have two sons Myles and Lewis. I come from the Hokianga and Stewart comes from Hamilton. We moved back to the Hokianga in December 2018. I am a member of the Te Ao Marama Midwifery team for Hokianga Health. I have been a midwife since 1989. My philosophy around birthing is one where the woman feels supported in her choices that she makes for her birthing experience. I encourage women to trust in themselves and the birthing process. We support women choosing...	Work 094057709: 021457732

NAME	ABOUT ME	PHONE
Kirsten Langman	Congratulations on your pregnancy!! I am an LMC midwife who is passionate about enabling women to become empowered and in control of their unique maternity experience. I do this by providing you and your whānau with up to date information and resources so you are able to make informed decisions about the care both you and baby will receive. I will walk alongside you and your whānau throughout your journey to parenthood, protecting and promoting physiological processes. The Hospital, birthing units, LMC Practice, a rural District Health Board hospital and in the outback of Australia. I love my job. Meeting women and their families and developing life long relationships. It is so rewarding to follow women through their pregnancy and then see the joy when they hold their baby for the first time.	Work: 021493456
Betty Whangapirita	I registered as a midwife in 2001. I have worked in many midwifery settings including a Tertiary Care Hospital, birthing units, LMC Practice, a rural District Health Board hospital and in the outback of Australia. I love my job. Meeting women and their families and developing life long relationships. It is so rewarding to follow women through their pregnancy and then see the joy when they hold their baby for the first time.	Kaitia Maternity: 0800582643 Mobile: +64-221272401
Colleen Brown	Māori midwife practising in the far north region Hokianga	Mobile: +64-21858129
Caro Foster	Congratulations on your pregnancy. I am passionate about providing individualised care from early pregnancy through to 6 weeks after the birth of your baby. I fully support and promote normal birth but will continue your care if an induction of labour is needed or an epidural is required at Whangarei Hospital. I live in Kerikeri and provide care to women and their families throughout most of the mid north area. Postnatal care is at home and pregnancy care is at the nearest clinic or at home by a...	Home: +64-94071411 Mobile: +64-211840007 Work: +64-211840007
Karen Harris (Bilby)	Congratulations, I am a midwife in the Bay of Islands Northland. I believe that pregnancy is the first step on the road to becoming awesome parents and that a positive pregnancy sets you up to enjoy the following years with your child. I work with you and your family/whānau to provide care in all areas of the childbirth journey for up to 6 weeks after the birth of your baby. I am able to provide care in the home. . My philosophy is to provide holistic care and happy healthy parents results...	Home: +64-94076806 mobile: 0274855305
Kerri Rewha	working as a self employed midwife in Kaitia area. have worked here for last 17yrs and have worked in Auckland prior to this. Have worked in many specified areas within the profession. I believe in womens/whānau choices and see myself a gardian through out the birthing process. I am of maori and European descent and come from a large whānau of 8.	Mobile: +64-21408026
Crete Cherrington	Tena koutou katoa, I am a Maori Midwife currently living and working in Pewhairangi. I have recently joined Te Puawai Ora Midwifery Services with Wiki Davis, based in Kawakawa. We both have our own caseloads but provide back up care and time off for each other. My caseload is 4 births per month. I have been a midwife for 20 plus years, birthing at home and in hospital. Safe traditional birthing practises are part of my philosophy of practise, and it is an honour and privilege to participat...	Mobile: 02102348639
Wiki Davis	I am a LMC Midwife that has the priviledge of working amongst my hapu and iwi here in Kawakawa. Married to Jim, I am a Mum and a grandmother too. My areas include up to and including Kerikeri, Kaikohe, Moerewa, Kawakawa, Paihia and surrounding districts. I am happy to do home visits if that is easier for you, although I do hold Clinics in Kaikohe and Kawakawa.	Home: +64-94041620 Mobile: +64-272715017 Work: +64-94041620
Maree Morgan	Hi and congratulations. I have been a midwife for over 20 years and worked in many areas of care including teaching parenting classes, hospital midwife, charge midwife and LMC. I am Northland born and love our beautiful region and the people who call it home. As an LMC I am fortunate to meet and care for our next generation of families. I also support student midwives to allow our daughters quality midwifery care and believe laughter is often the best medicine.	Home: +64-94351113 Mobile: +64-21435229