Angela Worthington	Tena koe and congratulations! Are you looking for a midwife who is passionate about advocating for and working with you during pregnancy, birthing, and in the transition to motherhood. I have a deep respect for the process and sacredness of birth, and believe my strength as a midwife is facilitating physiological (natural) birth to minimise intervention. I love homebirth, and had 3 of my 4 children at home - however if that's not your thing, then I aim to help you create the best environmen...
Isabel Bedford	My aim throughout our time together is to provide you with the information that you and your family/whānau need in order to make empowered decisions that feel right for you and your baby. I believe in facilitating birth in the environment that you feel comfortable and safe in. I support and respect your choices for your birth - always working in partnership with you to ensure you feel listened to, well supported and respected through your pregnancy, birth and beyond.
Beki Madden	Kia Ora Tatou, Ko Taranaki te Maunga, Ko Waiwhakaiti te Awa, No Taranaki Ahau, Ko Brbich raua ko Madden toku Whānau, Ko Beki toku ingoa. I'm a māmā to six kids, 5 daughters and 1 son. Born and bred in Taranaki, however lived in Wellington for 13 years before my whānau brought me home. I've now settled in Inglewood with hubby and our babies. I've been a midwife for coming up 9 years and offer full midwifery care to the beautiful māmā and their whānau in Taranaki. I like to centre my...	Phone type: Phone number Work: 0211856571
Donna Foreman	Hi and congratulations on your pregnancy. I am passionate about supporting women and their family, on the exciting journey of pregnancy, labour/birth and early parenthood. I aim to provide care that is respectful, safe, individualised, and supportive of your decisions. I am committed to working in partnership with you and your family, providing you with information throughout to help you make the best decisions that feel right for you. My practice partner is Sadie Jury.	Cell phone: 022-302-0063
Annette Thomas	Partners in Pregnancy I qualified as a Midwife in 1984 (Wellington) after first completing my General Nurse training. I have practised in Wanganui, Papakura, and then spent nine years in Hawera before moving to New Plymouth over 16 years ago. For the last 13 years I have worked within Partners in Pregnancy. I love being a Midwife and enjoy the journey with women and their families during pregnancy, birth and beyond. I aim to promote normal birth and breastfeeding, including Homebirth and Water... Marlies Schwartzfeger	Hello and congratulations for the next journey you are embarking on whether this is your first pregnancy or tenth I would love to be a part of it. My name is Marlies and I relocated to Inglewood for love, from the mighty Waikato. I started my career working as a core midwife at the tertiary hospital dealing with complex care and high acuity. For the past four years I have loved providing care in the community working with women and families during pregnancy, labour/birth and postnatally up t...	Mobile: +64-274245188
Stephanie Moffat	Congratulations!!!!!! What an adventure you've just begun! I am a registered nurse and midwife, and mother of 4 (2 pink, 2 blue, all of whom are now working). Born and bred in Taranaki, I am loving being back after escaping for 11 years to Wanganui and Dunedin. I am especially passionate about keeping birth normal, supporting new Mums to breastfeed and be empowered in their role as a Mum, and breech position, and will support you through whatever your particular adventure holds. Looking for...
Melissa Cameron	Hi, I'm Melissa. Congratulations on your pregnancy! You are in for an amazing journey, and I would feel privileged to share this special time with you. I am a mum to three children, two daughters who are 20 and 17 and my son who is 11 years old. I like to keep things 'light' and fun, and love to laugh, but don't worry, I know when to be serious as well! I care for women during pregnancy, labour and birth, and the postnatal period (up until your baby is 5 weeks old). I offer homebirth, an...	Phone type: 067699151
Ange Hill	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a LMC midwife providing care in Taranaki. I am a mum of four kids, ranging from 16-7 years old, and having these children sparked my passion for midwifery. I am born and bred in Taranaki, and love caring for the women of our community. As a LMC, I will care for you throughout your pregnancy, labour and birth, and up to 6 weeks postnatal. I have a clinic based in central New Plymouth, where I undertake antenatal appointments. I am passionate about informed ...	Phone type: 0275550614

Victoria Robinson	Welcome to Mountain Midwives - I'm Victoria and I work as part of a midwifery partnership with Pip Dinnison, assisting Taranaki women in their pregnancy and birthing journey. Pip and I will share your care between us from conception to 4-6 weeks postnatal. Over the course of your pregnancy, you will get to know us both well as we alternate responsibilities each week. We work this way as we feel it has many benefits, including providing a sustainable midwifery practice. We have over 17 years' exp...	FREEPHONE: 0800 045 045
Amy Fromings	Congratulations on your pregnancy! Welcome to the amazing journey of motherhood! My aim is to work in partnership with you throughout your pregnancy and postnatal journey and to provide education and support to empower you to make informed decisions that are best for you and your baby. I currently work as a hospital midwife as well as taking a small caseload of women each month. I have a passion for supporting women in the postnatal period with the transition to motherhood, after the births ...	Mobile: +64-272584570
Hannah Mana	Hello and congratulations. I'm based in New Plymouth providing continuity of care through the pregnancy, birth and up to 6 weeks following birth. I love working with families through the special time of having a baby and my aim is to assist the women in my care through a safe and positive experience and into being confident in parenting. I am confident with normal pregnancy/birth, and in identifying if things become abnormal and in accessing the appropriate additional services when required.	mobile: 0211332682
Amy Tuavao	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I am Taranaki born and bred, and am married to a Kiwi born half Samoan man. Together we are the proud parents of two primary school age children. I am passionate about women being able to have a positive experience in their journey of bringing new life into this world. I look forward to supporting you through this time by providing information and education, allowing you to make the best decisions for your pregnancy, birth and during the beginning of motherhood... Melodie Wiley	What an amazing journey you are embarking on, congratulations. It would be a privilege to support you and your choices during this time. As an holistic therapist, I am very focused on nutrition and natural childbirth with a passion for home-birth and minimising intervention. Your body was designed to do this! I provide prenatal and antenatal visits at my clinic in town & labour, birth and postnatal care for up to six weeks after your baby has arrived. I feel very strongly about traditional ...
Louise Hammond	Hi, I'm Louise & work as an LMC at PIP. I have been a Registered Midwife Since early 2006, when I completed my Bachelor of Midwifery Degree in Dunedin. I initially worked hospital shifts & took a small caseload of clients in Dunedin. After the birth of my second child in 2008, I moved back to Southland where I am originally from & worked initially at the hospital in Invercargill as a core midwife & then as a fulltime LMC. In early 2014 I moved to New Plymouth with my family. I have two chi...	Work: 06 769 9151
Gillian O'Connell	A little bit of magic has happened and you are now growing a little human being. Congratulations. I love being a Midwife and am excited to work with you through this journey. I hope you will find me approachable, open-minded, supportive, caring and safe. I aim to form a partnership empowering women through education and promoting the health and safety of both the mother and baby. I work alongside three other wonderful midwives who also share this philosophy of care. I am a Mum to three teenagers...	Mobile: +64-277229517
Jodie Hardy	I'm Jodie - I immigrated to New Zealand in 2011 with my husband and we now have 4 children. I trained in England and worked there briefly. Since coming to New Zealand I have worked in Auckland, Taranaki, and Taihape before settling here in Taranaki. I am passionate about partnership with women, supporting informed decision making, and being able to get to know the woman and her family/whānau, following through their journey of childbirth.
