

Dee Mita	Congratulations on your pregnancy!! A little bit about me and how I work: I became a midwife because I believe that everyone's pregnancy and birth are individual, precious moments and for this reason I keep my caseload small (max 6 women due per month). This helps to ensure I have the time to provide full and individualised support for each woman and her family throughout each pregnancy, labour and the postnatal period. I run antenatal clinics in Cambridge and Tokoroa and I see you in...	Mobile: 022 126 4554
Heather Featherstone	My name is Heather and I reside in the King Country region. My philosophy is that birth is a natural yet hugely significant event. Every midwifery setting should be directed by the mother and family and their desires accommodated to ensure safe, enjoyable and special outcomes. I cherish the unique concept of being a professional friend to the woman and baby throughout her maternity period and it is my intention to inform her of all the resources and services available to every woman during...	Fax: +64-78787361 Mobile: +64-220364014
Hannah Abraham	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a midwife working in the Hauraki Plains area in the Waikato. I work with families from when they find out they are pregnant until 6 weeks after your baby is born. I love assisting women and families throughout pregnancy and watching families bond with their new baby and grow as parents. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.	Mobile: +64-211447041
Kimai Cure	Kia Ora, I am a Māori Midwife and have worked in the health field for 10 years and have a passion for women's health. I love being part of the pregnancy, birth and postnatal journey with women and their whānau and would love to be part of your maternity experience. I am a part of an established partnership which helps provide 24 hour midwifery care. I have 2 sons aged 21 and 10 and a beautiful mokopuna Leila. I look forward to meeting you and your family during this exciting time.	Home: 0274646024
Kelly Heke-Heays	I'm Kelly and I am a new graduate midwife living in Te Awamutu, covering both urban and surrounding rural areas. I am passionate in supporting women with a holistic approach and using best practice to facilitate best outcomes. I aim to build partnerships, offering non-judgmental care and empowering women and their families/Whānau to make their own informed choices and decisions. As a mother of two boys, I feel privileged to work alongside women and Whānau with their journey. My clinic days a...	Mobile: 027 262 0928 Work: Phone number
Abbie Holmes	Hello and congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Abbie and I am a Registered Midwife. I have had experience working at two tertiary hospitals - Waikato and Middlemore Hospital. Midwifery is a career I have pursued since having my son in 2012, and I wish every woman to have the same well-informed and individualised care I received. I am happy to support and provide care for you however you wish your labour and birth to be: from birthing at a primary birthing unit to birthing in the hospital...	Mobile: 0272129907
Kelly Taylor	Pregnancy, birth and the early postnatal period are momentous times in a woman's and family's life. I aim to provide kind, empathetic and supportive midwifery care during this time. I have always worked in primary care and I believe that pregnancy and birth are normal, healthy stages in a woman's life, and that positive outcomes are achieved when families are well informed and supported in their choices. I primarily care for women planning to birth at home or a birth centre, as these environments...	Mobile: +64-211377156
Nicky Mecchia	I have been a Midwife now for 16 years, working in a variety of settings. I have worked in large secondary care facilities both in New Zealand and overseas. My passion though, is working in the community with women and their families and being involved in their childbearing journey. I learn so much from Women, their families, my colleagues and from ongoing education. I enjoy sharing this knowledge and experience to help women make informed choices towards a safe and empowering journey. I have two...	Mobile: +64-277712377 Phone type: Phone number
Fiona Hermann	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I've been a midwife for over 25 years and I still get a thrill with every birth. I have worked in lots of areas of midwifery - as an LMC providing care at home birth, in birth centres, hospitals, educating student midwives and midwifery leadership. I love supporting women and their partners through pregnancy and as they begin parenting. I am happy to have some appointments after regular working hours for those women who need that flexibility. Give me a call...	Cell : 022 1223012 Phone type: Phone number
Aimee Keating	Welcome to my profile and congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a midwife and mother of two beautiful children. I practise out of Waterford Birth Centre and care for women and families mainly in the Hamilton area, however I will consider caring for women in Ngaruawahia, Morrinsville and Cambridge, so please get in touch. I am passionate about women's health and informed choice and consent. Antenatal discussion and education are an integral aspect of the care I provide. I advocate for women...	Mobile: +64-221656744
Juliet Dagnall	Originally from the UK where I trained and qualified as a midwife graduating in 2002 with a BSc (Hons) Degree. With a passion and a belief that pregnancy and birth are normal life events. With experience in Community, Birth Centre and Hospital Midwifery Care, having supported women birthing at home, in water and within the hospital environment. Working in the Waikato Region as a Lead Maternity Carer Midwife is a unique and special job. I feel privileged in being able to be part of your special...	Mobile: +64-272933376
Tui Lee	Hello and congratulations! I'm an experienced midwife who loves her work. Your pregnancy is special and unique and you deserve to have care that is individualised to meet your needs. My goal is to make you feel welcome, well informed and supported during your pregnancy. Whether you are a first time mum or having your 3rd baby, helping you on your birthing journey is the greatest privilege. See more about my experience, philosophy and the care I provide on my website WWW.AROHAMIDWIFE...	Mobile: +64-0273484367

Courtney Kahura	Kia Ora and Congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Courtney and I am a New Grad Midwife in the Te Awamutu region. I am passionate about providing holistic midwifery care that accentuates your wants and needs throughout your pregnancy, birth and early postnatal period. My philosophy encompasses childbirth as a normal, yet amazing life event that I believe should be an empowering experience. Being married with two young children myself, whānau is such a huge part of my life, and I endeavor...	Mobile: 0275927215
Zahra Brogden	First of all, Congratulations!! You are embarking on the exciting journey of welcoming a new member to your family. I believe pregnancy and birth are remarkable but natural life events, and I feel privileged to walk alongside women and their families on their journey. I am passionate about supporting women who are planning to birth in one of our fantastic local primary birth centres or at home. As pregnancy can be unpredictable, if the need for specialist or hospital input is required, I will...	Work: 0221914940
Ellie Griffiths	Hi there, congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a new LMC midwife working in Hamilton. I have spent the past two and a half years working at Waikato Hospital providing complex care to women and their families. My passion for primary, women centred midwifery care is ultimately what led to my decision to move into the community. This experience is unique to you and your family. As a midwife I will support and guide you through this exciting and amazing journey with your and your baby's health ...	Mobile: 0225065250
Rachel Taylor	Congratulations on becoming a mum! You are about to embark upon an amazing and empowering journey into the world's most important role! Babycatchers midwives offer caring, personalised, evidence-informed midwifery care for all, whether you birth at home or birth centre or require secondary care within the hospital. As a certified practitioner of natural therapies, I am passionate about optimal pre-conceptual well being. I am committed to non-interventionalist holistic birthing at home or ...	Mobile: +64-275699436
Ange Kingi (Mason)	Hi and congratulations on your pregnancy! I live in Hamilton with my husband and two children and I care for women who live in Hamilton and some surrounding areas. I work in partnership with Stephanie Murray and have antenatal clinics at Waterford Birth Centre. All postnatal visits are done in your home. I am constantly in awe of the amazing journey that is pregnancy, child birth and motherhood and I love caring for people. I believe that with the right support and knowledge, most women will...	Work: +64-275124330
Tina Gillies	Hello. Congratulations on your pregnancy. I look forward to meeting with you and should you choose, also being a part of your journey throughout your pregnancy, birth and beyond. I provide care for women who live in Hamilton and outlying rural areas. Along with providing care during your pregnancy, we work together throughout on a care plan. I provide you with information which offers you choices to consider during your pregnancy, for your birth and early weeks after birth. My husband ...	Mobile: 027 286 1736
Karina Harihari	Ko Karioi toku Maunga, Ko Whaingaroa toku Moana, Ko Tainui toku Iwi, Ko Motakotako toku Marae, Ko Ngati Mahanga toku Hapu, Ko Karina Harihari toku Ingoa. Kia ora & Congratulations on your pregnancy. I provide holistic midwifery care which is individualised, kind and supportive. I believe pregnancy, birth and becoming a Whanau are the most precious times in our lives. For most women birth is a normal life event, and when well informed and well supported, can achieve a natural birth. I am a...	Mobile: +64-223807082
Frances Good	I have been a midwife for the last 30 years, with 13 years spent working in England, Hong Kong and Holland. Since coming home to NZ I have married, had three children and have had the pleasure of working in NZ. I aim to guide women and their families safely through their birth experience.	Home: (07) 855-4856 Mobile: 027-685-3814
Alana Grieve	Congratulations on your pregnancy, what a special and exciting time for you. My name is Alana and I offer antenatal, labour/birth and postnatal services. I believe childbirth is a normal life event and as such women should feel empowered during their maternity experience. I enjoy working in partnership with women and their families, encouraging and supporting informed choice and consent. I am passionate about women's health and facilitating women to birth physiologically where possible, that sai...	Mobile: +64-300929
Tracey Crow	Hi I have worked as a midwife for the past 20 years and as a registered nurse prior to this. I have a very supportive family including 4 children. I work in partnership with Leanne Mackie and the Babies R Us team I look forward to meeting you and caring for you during your pregnancy, birth and the weeks following.	Mobile: +64-21862211
Kimberly Grant	Kia Ora my name is Kim, I am a mother of five who feels that my own birthing experiences along with clinical knowledge and practical midwifery experiences enables me to be an empathetic, caring, safe and professional midwife. I have worked in a number of settings since qualifying as a midwife in 2011, with my latest employment being at Waikato Women's Hospital where I have been able to add to my skill base. I absolutely love primary care and believe that with the right mind set, support and...	Home: Phone number Mobile: +64-211370054

Miriam Evans	Hello I am a Midwife that has been working in and around Hamilton for 18 years and love what I do. I get huge satisfaction in supporting women with information and learning around what is usually the biggest event in their lives. I enjoy the transformation from woman to motherhood and the joy that this brings the whole family. I feel I am kind and approachable in my support of women in this year that can sometimes bring big personal challenges but equally stunning results, achievement and person...	Fax: 07 8344083 Mobile: +64-272564930 Work: +64-272564930
Julie Jessen	I have been a midwife for more than 20 years and have worked as a Lead Maternity Carer (LMC) for all of that time. I still love my work and enjoy meeting and caring for women and their families as they embark on their journey to parenthood. I have two adult children and two gorgeous grandchildren who I love spending time with. I care for four to five women most months and enjoy a supportive partnership with Nicky Mecchia who has more than ten years midwifery experience. Women in my care can ...	Mobile: +64-277712377
Marissa Panettiere	I have 20 years experience in midwifery and 32 Years as a Registered Nurse. I am currently a self-employed midwife who services Hamilton and surrounding areas. I work in a supportive partnership with a group of midwives who provide backup for each other during our scheduled time off. My philosophy is to work in partnership with women and their families in a holistic supportive way that empowers women and ensures shared decision making. During my years as a midwife I have worked in a variety of s...	Mobile: +64-2102363411 Work: +64-2102363411
Shirley Jefferies	I am delighted to offer midwifery care to women and whānau in the Taupō and Turangi regions. I work as an employed, case-loading midwife for Awhi Midwives, a midwifery practice located in beautiful Taupō. Together we work as team to support our women and whānau holistically during pregnancy, childbirth and the postnatal period.
June Ly	Kia ora! Your pregnancy - whether it is your first or fifth baby - is a unique journey that can be a roller coaster of emotions from excitement, to anticipation, to nervousness, and empowering as you transition into motherhood. I am Canadian born and have come to New Zealand to pursue a career in midwifery. I work with Lee Hughes and we provide shared care, working week-on, week-off. As your team, we are responsible for your care from the time you register with us up until six weeks after the bi...	Mobile: 0224885374
Dawn McHugh	I qualified as a midwife in England in 1990, after first gaining my registered nurse qualification. I am married with 4 children. I care for women across the scope of midwifery practice, including Homebirth and more intense care for complicated cases. I have 16 years experience as an LMC and have recently returned to this after a period of hospital employment.	Mobile: +64-272372141
Nicole Burd	Congratulations on your pregnancy!! This is such an exciting time for you. I am a LMC - Lead Maternity Care Midwife working in the Waikato area. It is my privilege to provide individual and compassionate care for women and their families throughout pregnancy, labour, birth and for the first weeks of baby's life. I work with women to share information, experiences and build a trusting relationship. I believe in women and I believe in birth. My role as a midwife is to support you through t...	Mobile: 0211 323 929
Julia Fransen	CONGRATULATIONS on your pregnancy, I look forward to the opportunity to meet with you and your partner to discuss your pregnancy, birth care and beyond. I believe every woman can have an experience to remember which is empowering and positive as they take on the world's most important role MOTHERHOOD. I have been a midwife since 1992 and worked in a variety of settings since. For the last 17 years I have worked as a LMC. I see my role as providing information and support to enable safe and ...	Mobile: 021-0698118
Jennie Knight	Hi, congratulations on your pregnancy! Thanks for reading my profile. I am passionate about midwifery and really appreciate the privilege of being involved with women and their families during this special time. I specialise in Primary Birth - normal birth in the Community (Birth Centres mostly), however, I can birth at the hospital if necessary. I treat everyone as an individual as every woman, baby and pregnancy is different and should be treated like it. I use lots of different resources...	Mobile: +64-274881443
Annika Reid	A big congratulations to you and your family! I am a registered midwife working in Hamilton. I am originally from the beautiful Far North, a mum to three and a sister to many. I'm easy going and enjoy a laugh. Midwifery is my passion and I feel blessed to share this journey with women and their whānau. I believe that pregnancy and birth are ordinary yet extraordinary life events. As a midwife I work in partnership with women. I aim to inform, support and empower you to achieve a fulfilling e...	Mobile: +021-1521844
Celeste Temple	Congratulations on your pregnancy. This can be a demanding but exciting time in your life and I look forward to being part of your support team. I am a Registered Midwife and a wife and mother with three children at home. I am well equipped with both life experience and midwifery experience that will ensure that you feel well informed and well supported throughout your pregnancy, labour and birth, and postnatal time. I believe that pregnancy and birth are natural life events and as such dese...	Mobile: +022-3997552
Karene Clark	I am a midwife who is grounded in natural birth and believe that most women are able to safely give birth without medical intervention. I therefore support women who choose to birth at home or in a primary birthing unit. I provide care that is holistic and gentle, supportive and empowering, and act in partnership with the woman and her family, sharing decision-making, knowledge and skills. Already a registered nurse, I trained as a midwife in 1989. Since then I have spent time working with...	Home: 07-871-9114 Work: 07-871-9114

Sue Bogaard	Pregnancy is a special, exciting and challenging time in any woman's life and I would love to support you and your family through this time. I believe birth is a normal life event and my role is to safely facilitate that process, to help the woman be in control of her own experience of giving birth and becoming a mother. I provide continuity of care based on the partnership model of working with women, providing midwifery knowledge and information, and assisting you to make informed decisions...	Home: +64-75481221 Mobile: +64-274999303
Gaye Davis	Congratulations on your pregnancy - this a time of many emotions for you. I come to midwifery with a love of working with women and a strong belief that pregnancy is a normal and exciting time in each woman's life. Each woman's journey is individual and it is a privilege to walk alongside them. I have a particular interest in homebirth and am happy to support women who wish to birth at home or in a birth centre. If their journey should change to need extra support, I am happy to support the...	Work: +64-272182137
Korina Burne-Vaughn	Ko Tainui te waka, Ko Tikapa te Moana, ko Ohinemuri te awa, ko Paeahi tooku Marae, Ko Hauraki te hapuu ko Ngaati Hako te iwi, Ko Marutuahu te taangata. Ko Korina Burne-Vaughn ahau. He mihi rawa atua ki a koutau. I carry small caseload supporting hapu wāhine and whanau in Raahui Pookeka Huntly and surrounding districts. I feel privileged to work amongst whanau.	Mobile: +64-274950859
Natasha Davidson (Clarke)	Congratulations on your pregnancy. I live in Hamilton and have three beautiful children. I work as a LMC in the community and care for a smaller number of women so that I am able to spend quality time working with women and their families whilst balancing my family life around my work. Being a midwife is very rewarding and I am passionate about working with women and their families, sharing their childbirth and transition to parenthood journey. As a midwife, my belief is that childbirth is an am...	Work: +64-277772609
Michaela Humphries	I am a Lead maternity Carer working within the Hamilton area and the greater Waikato region. I am a mum to three children and I feel very lucky to be a part of a wonderful profession and love being alongside women and their families through what is a very special time. I am a strong advocate for informed choice and consent with the sharing of information throughout the antenatal, birth and postnatal period. I have a clinic room at Waterford Birth Centre but as I take a small caseload I am happy ...	Mobile: +64-274836777
Katrina Woodham	I am a caring Midwife who would feel honoured to be invited to share this amazing time with women and their whānau. I have been a Midwife for 15 years and have 4 beautiful children. I am working in partnership with Larissa Grandi and within a collective of midwives (New Additions Midwives) that work from Avalon Health, Cnr Avalon Dr & Forest Lake Rd, Hamilton. I believe pregnancy and birthing are part of a normal process and would welcome the opportunity to share in your journey with you...	Mobile: +64-21627669
Debbie Fawcett	Hi there. My name is Debbie Fawcett and I have been a midwife for over 25 years. I emigrated with my family from the UK in 1998 to work in this fabulous maternity system. I am experienced across the whole scope of midwifery practice - at home, in a birthing centres and in hospitals in New Zealand and the UK. I love working with women and their families on their journey to parenthood and supporting them in their choices. I still get just as excited about birth as I did 25 + years ago. Congra...	Fax: +64-78567734 Mobile: +64-21456587 Pager: +64-26110571 Work: +64-78567732
Shelby Murtagh	Congratulations on your pregnancy! What an exciting adventure to embark on. I am a Registered Midwife working as a Lead Maternity Career in the Waikato region. I feel privileged to be able to work alongside women and families in their journey of bringing a new addition into their world. I work in partnership with women and families to provide holistic and individualised care based on your needs and wishes. I support and advocate for women and families throughout pregnancy, labour and birth a...	Mobile: 027 582 4483
Fiona Goldfinch	I live in Hamilton with my husband and three children. I work as a Lead Maternity Carer (LMC) in the community, caring for up to five women a month. I work out of Maternal Instinct Midwives, located at: River Ridge Clinics Building (my office is upstairs) 39 Von Tempsky Street Hamilton East. (see Google Maps for directions) I am lucky enough to enjoy a wonderfully supportive midwifery partnership with Jennie Knight who works out of Midwifery Villa. My clients all meet with Jennie and ...	Mobile: 027 557 8180
Kirsty Otoka (Orr)	Kia Ora, and congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a registered midwife working within the Waikato region and am hugely passionate about what it means to become a mother. I aim to work with you and your wider support networks to achieve the most out of your pregnancy, birth and adjustment to life with a new family member. I support and value the normal processes of pregnancy and birth with an emphasis on women's informed choice. I recognise each pregnancy and birth as being very unique and use...	Mobile: 021623336
Kimba Allison	I love being a midwife and am passionate about offering holistic, respectful and individualised care based upon up-to-date information and research. I believe in informing, supporting and empowering women to make their own decisions and to achieve the best birth outcome with the minimum of interventions. My care includes complimentary midwifery acupuncture. I support birth where you feel most comfortable, whether that be at home or a birth centre, in the water or on land. If you need to trans...	Work: 07 871 9848

Karen Donald (van Der Leden)	I am a midwife who has moved from the Rural Lake Taupo area and is now caring for women who live in the Whenuakite/Tairua/Pauanui/Whangamata to Thames and surrounding areas, who would like to birth at home or Thames Birthing Unit. I have been a midwife for the past 25 years. I thoroughly love my job working with women and their families, and helping them to understand and gain strength as they journey. I am good at planning with them and preparing (especially rural women), to be able to get to w...	mobile: 02041177332 Phone type: Phone number
Jo Mason	First and foremost congratulations on your pregnancy and the beginning of another chapter in your life! My main focus as a midwife is to provide personal, safe midwifery care by building a trusting relationship with you and your family. Together we will discuss information that affects your pregnancy, labour and the six weeks following the birth, enabling you to make choices and to create your personal care plan. I have a midwifery partner who I work closely with and whom you will meet t...	Mobile: +64-277761253
Jenny Johnston	Home Birth Midwife with 35 years experience. I am committed to protecting and promoting normal happy birthing and parenting. I have a low caseload (usually 1 to 2 women a month) as I love to give you the care and attention that you deserve. I prefer to care for home-birthing women and their families in Thames/Thames Coast, Coromandel Peninsula area and the Hauraki Plains. I am happy and willing to discuss your situation and needs.	Mobile: 02041525319
Precious Lopena	Hello and congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Precious and I am a registered midwife covering Hamilton, Te Awamutu and surrounding areas. I was born and raised in the Philippines and have moved to New Zealand together with my family in 2014. One of my favourite things about being a midwife is having the privilege to work alongside women and their families as they embark on a beautiful journey from pregnancy to parenthood. I believe in the normality of pregnancy and childbirth. However,...	Mobile: +64-226943145
Larissa Grandi	I am passionate about midwifery and believe that birthing is sacred. I am privileged to go with women on their childbirth journey. I truly believe babies should be received in this world in a gentle way. My focus is to provide sound information, working in partnership with women/whānau. I support women willing to birth in primary settings, either at the birthing units or at home, which is proven by research to have the lowest medical intervention rates. I also have hospital access to ensu...	02108773275: Phone number Phone type: Phone number
Steph Murray	Congratulations you are pregnant! I am an experienced Midwife working within the Waikato Region covering the areas listed below. I believe that pregnancy and birth are normal life events and therefore support women wishing to birth at Waterford Birthing Unit but do extend my services to Waikato Hospital should you have a medical need to birth there. My passion is working with and supporting women on their journey throughout pregnancy and into motherhood with my focus being around providing safe...	Mobile: 0272363362
Lesila Halauafu	Malo e lelei and greetings to you all. My name is Lesila Halauafu (Sila) and I'm a Pasifika midwife of Tongan descent, working in Hamilton. Congratulations on your pregnancy. It is an exciting time, as you embark on your journey through pregnancy, childbirth and motherhood. I believe that birth is a normal life event and every woman should be empowered by her own individual experience. I am passionate about helping women and would be privileged to be part of your journey. I look forward to worki...	Mobile: +64-211215649
Carey Aburn	Hi, I am currently returning to practise Midwifery in the Coromandel area. And will be working together with Sheryl Wright. I've had the last four years off, pursuing other interests, and am returning to midwifery to assist women and families living in this rural/remote area. My experience includes being a Mother, and an Enrolled nurse, when I was younger, working on the Children's ward at Wellington Hospital, and on the Maternity Ward at Palmerston North Hospital. I trained as a Midwife at...	Mobile: 0225001310 Phone type: Phone number
Sheryl Wright	Hi. After 15+ years working as a community midwife in the rural and remote rural areas of the North Waikato I am excited to be continuing my passion for rural primary midwifery following my move to the Coromandel. I'm a proud Mum (of three) and recently became a 'Grammy' for the second time. Experiencing the joys (and demands!) of pregnancy, birth and becoming a mum inspired me to become a midwife and I enjoy supporting women and families during this special time. After many yea...	Mobile: +64-225001310
Kim Murray	Hi there! My name is Kim and I am an experienced midwife, gaining my degree from AUT in 2004. Since then I have worked both as an LMC midwife, providing continuity of care, and as a hospital staff midwife. I have a wide range of experience, much of which was gained working in NWH Delivery Suite, where I had the opportunity to care for hundreds of women - both normal and highly complex pregnancies and births. I have really enjoyed working with women of many different cultures and in particular...	Mobile: 0211113553 Phone type: Phone number
Tania Rangī	Kia ora, I provide midwifery care for women in the South Waikato. I have been a midwife since 1999, I am also a mum and nana to 5 beautiful mokopuna. I care for women who choose to birth at Tokoroa Maternity, home birth, birthing units Waterford and River Ridge or Waikato if extra medical care is required. I truly believe in normal, natural birth and will provide individualised midwifery care that suits your needs and beliefs. I work with a team of experienced midwives who will provid...	Mobile: 0220860969

Natasha Ziegler	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a midwife who works in the community and provides continuity of care throughout the antenatal, birth and postnatal period. I believe in providing women and their families with current evidence based information in order for them to make informed decisions about their pregnancy and baby. I will provide you evidence based information and discuss all options available to you during this exciting time. I will be there to support and advocate for you and you...	Mobile: +64-224316988
Anita Bain	I am a self-employed midwife based in Otorohanga. I cover the Otorohanga area, Kawhia, Taharoa, Te Kuiti, Pio Pio and Aria, North to Te Awamutu. My Clinic is Preggers Cottage in Otorohanga, 180 Maniapoto St opposite Countdown. I have a passion for normal birth and supporting women through a healthy pregnancy and postnatal time. Previously to qualifying as a midwife in 2003 I was a Registered General & Obstetric Nurse. I believe that pregnancy and childbirth is a natural, normal process t...	Work: +64-78738181
Anna-Lena Tews	I believe pregnancy and childbirth are one of the most natural phases in a woman's life. My philosophy reflects a holistic approach while providing safe, professional, empowering and woman/whānau orientated care. Throughout my midwifery career I've supported women and their families in all kind of birthing environments - at home, in birthing centres and in hospitals nationally and internationally. My 2 years as Midwifery Supervisor in India and South Sudan have not only confirmed my believe ...	Home: Phone number Mobile: +64-2102571730
Michelle Lemberg	Hello my name is Michelle Lemberg (carr). I am a Registered Midwife, I have moved back to Hamilton after 6 years in Thames. I have two daughters and a very supportive partner. I enjoy working alongside women and their families, offering free antenatal, labour, birth and postnatal care up to 6 weeks after baby. In that time we get to know each other well. The continuity gained in this time helps us put together a birth care plan to achieve good outcomes using communication. Working with women...	mobile: 0276326501
Julie Mayall	Midwifery is about walking beside women and their families and supporting them to make the right choices for their childbirth journey.	Mobile: +64-273164399
Belinda Beetham	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a mother of five and have been a Midwife since 1991. I love being involved with families and attending births. I believe birth is a normal life event and I am passionate about women being well informed and supported to birth naturally. I fully support breastfeeding and development of the mother/baby relationship. I live in Athenree, just south of Waihi, and care for women in the Western Bay of Plenty, Waihi Beach and Waihi/Paeroa area. I am also ha...	Mobile: +64-274847049 Work: +64-274847049
Liana Doherty (Mapson)	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I have recently moved to the gorgeous Hauraki Plains with my husband and 3 children in order to set up as an LMC (lead maternity carer). I enjoy working closely with women and their families to achieve well informed and individualised care. In order to spend as much time as possible with my young children, I will be taking a small number of women per month on the Hauraki Plains and surrounds, so please get in contact.	Home: +64-2108363768 Mobile: +64-2108363768
Tawhia Phelwisher	Kia ora, my name is Tawhia (Tawh), and I am a new graduate midwife working in Hamilton. I am a mum to five awesome children which is why whānau is so important to me. I believe that all wāhine and whānau should be educated in their pregnancy, labour and birth, and postnatally to make the choices that meet their own individual needs to ensure you have an awesome experience. I cannot wait to walk alongside you while also having a good laugh and giving you awesome care that is safe.	Mobile: +64-2108492677
Gillian Curtis	Hi. I'm a mum, wife and midwife. Professionally I trained and graduated from Palmerston North Massey University. I have worked in a primary birth unit here in Hamilton when my daughter was little but went into private practice as a Lead Maternity Carer. I am very passionate about offering services across my scope of practice. I stay up to date with my education in many interesting areas of the midwifery field. I am a member of the New Zealand College of Midwives. I do many births at our local ...	Mobile: +64-275642836
Viv Sim	I am Malaysian and work with women from all walks of life and no approach is the same as I understand that we are all different. Your pregnancy is an intimate journey and finding the right midwife is essential. I love humour and putting people at ease. Pregnancy is a normal event and my midwifery philosophy is 'working with women's choices'. I endeavour to be transparent to women and take pride in giving you all information, therefore helping you make informed decisions throughout your pregn...	Mobile: +64-211653743
Lee Hughes	Kia ora, congratulations on your pregnancy. I am an LMC covering central Hamilton. I have worked in various settings as a midwife, this includes home birth, birth centre and hospital. I will support you where you feel most comfortable to birth. It a privilege to share this journey with you and I believe that birth is a normal, yet extraordinary life event. My midwifery partner is Junee Ly. We work as a team and provide individualised, safe and holistic care. During our appointments we will dis...	Work: 0224885374
Veronika Muller	Working in the Western Bay of Plenty area. Te Puna to Waikino. (NOT Tauranga/Mount) Taking a caseload of 2- 3 women a month, with 3 great backup midwives who also take small caseloads. Working as a self-employed midwife since 1984. Prefer to care for women who choose to birth at home, or in primary birth centres (BBC and Waihi). Focus on keeping birth as natural and normal as possible but feel it is very important to continue to provide care right through if complications arise. Aim to work with...	Home: +64-75481033 Mobile: +64-274804646

Mel Jeram	I have been working as a LMC in the Waikato area since 2009 and couldn't imagine ever doing anything else. I have 2 grown boys and love being a mum. I am easy going, easy approachable and love meeting families and working along side them to achieve the birth experience that they desire. I also have the facility to follow the women and families to Waikato Hospital and provide secondary care if needed. This ensures that my clients have continuity of care and no need for handing over care. I...	Mobile: +64-277480258
Kathy Scott	Hello and congratulations on your pregnancy, what an exciting time for you, your family and whanau. I am very passionate about supporting women and families throughout this very exciting time, and strongly believe that birth is a normal part of a woman's life. I care for women of all nationalities, ages and lifestyles. I offer all antenatal, labour, birth and postnatal care and support women to birth where they feel most comfortable, whether that be at one of our two lovely birth centres, th...	Mobile: +64-275047634
Sonia Kerr	Firstly congratulations on your pregnancy! This whole experience is all about you and your family. I am here to provide up to date information on all aspects of your care, so that you can make informed decisions about your journey ahead. Cherishing the journey is a large part of my philosophy as a midwife. When pregnancy and birth is respected, gentle, informed, safe and owned by you, I see strength, trust and empowerment evolve. It would be an honour to be involved in this journey with you....	Mobile: 027 777 2609
Rachel Cassie	I feel hugely privileged to share the pregnancy and birth experience with women and their families. I have worked in both hospital and community settings. I also currently work for New Zealand College of Midwives (NZCOM) as a Standards Reviewer. I am committed to evidence based practice and believe that interventions should only occur if there is good evidence of benefit. I am married and the mother of two adult children. I had a fifteen year career in health care and worked for 5 years as an ...	Mobile: +64-212709920 Work: 021270 9920
Karamea Harris	Kia Ora and congratulations on your pregnancy. As a midwife, wife and mother of three boys I recognise that this is a special time for you and your whānau, where individualised and supportive care is paramount as you make this journey into parenthood. Whānau is extremely important to me and being a midwife means I get to help strengthen other whānau within my wider community. My heart lies in working with woman as a Lead Maternity Carer, and view birth as a natural life event. I believe in ...	Mobile: +64-278141854
Jo Mounsey	I am a midwife who believes childbirth is a normal life process. I hope that I can walk alongside you and your family on your journey through pregnancy, labour and the early weeks of your new baby's life. I hope to be able to arm you with the knowledge and awareness to enable your birthing experience to be a positive, well supported journey that is individual to your needs. It is necessary to work in partnership and guide women with open lines of communication providing safe and timely care...	Work: +64-279527222
Leonie de Vries	Kia Ora and congratulations on your pregnancy! I am a new graduate midwife working in the South Waikato area. This is an exciting journey full of choices and decisions and I want to ensure that you are well informed of all your options. I am passionate about normal birth and will work in partnership with you to achieve a safe outcome for both mother and baby.	Mobile: 0272133036
Jocelyn Yates	Hello and congratulations! I have been a midwife since 1992 and have 3 beautiful adult children and a wonderful husband. I have had a wide range of experience in midwifery having most recently worked for 14 years as an LMC midwife in the Waikato region. Following this I worked as a remote rural locum midwife and really loved it. This has led to us relocating to the beautiful Coromandel Peninsula (based in Whitianga) from Feb 2016. I worked in partnership with Fiona Kington initially and now w...	Mobile: 027 9124104
Kathy Hannah	Hello, and congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Kathy and I am a registered midwife providing care for women living in the Katikati area. I am passionate about midwifery and dedicated to providing professional, supportive, non-judgmental, individualised midwifery care throughout your pregnancy, birth and up to six weeks after the birth of your baby. My aim as a midwife is to help facilitate a safe and empowering experience and I feel an important part of this process is informed choic...	Home: +64-75789336 Mobile: +64-210520080 Work: +64-210520080
Katrina Winter	Kia ora and congratulations on your pregnancy! My name is Katrina and I am a new graduate midwife working in Hamilton. I am married and have a child of my own. It is important to me that you are informed and supported so that you feel empowered to make decisions throughout your pregnancy, birth and postnatal journey. I support normal birth and believe in the ability of women to give birth; however, I understand that complications can arise and if this happens I work in partnership with other hea...	Mobile: 0273564971
Lara Evans	Congratulations on your pregnancy I look forward to supporting you through the changes to come. I am passionate about women and families whether this is your first baby or your last I believe women and their whanau deserve to be cared for with compassion and knowledge to make decisions right for themselves. I am happy to provide care to women birthing at any one of our fabulous birth centers , my office is based at Waterford Birth centre, or at Waikato Womens Hospital as you decide based on co...	Home: +64-75601535 Mobile: +64-275334435

Kirsty Larkin-Heald	Aotearoa is blessed to have a maternity system where birthing women have choices and midwifery partnerships grow through continuity, shared knowledge, informed consent and mutual respect. The retention of this autonomy was a well fought for battle, I am proud to be a midwife & a part of such an inspiring community. My philosophy is centred around natural birth & ensuring the women and whanau feel supported, informed and in control of their pregnancy and birth experience. I strongly believe that ...	Mobile: +64-275719439
Lorna Jones	I love my job and so to walk along side you in your journey will be a privilege. Each pregnancy is precious and should be treated as such. I can be flexible with where and when we meet as I do work most weekends. After I had completed my own family of three children, I trained to be a midwife in England, then moved to NZ in 2003, I have worked most of this time in a hospital setting, time for change so now I have joined Babies R Us in Hamilton and I work with Debbie Fawcett. I will provide ...	0272995255: Phone number
Amber Dashwood	Hi there to all you beautiful mamas out there. My name is Amber Dashwood, I am a new graduate midwife and am very passionate about providing individualised, safe and primary midwifery care to the women I care for. I am a mama of three children myself and am partnered with another amazing new graduate midwife Lesila F Halauafu. I am especially passionate about empowering women to embrace traditional and physiological birthing practices and look forward being a part of your birthing journey.	Work: +64-2041098486
Kim Stead	Hi there. Congratulations on your pregnancy! You are about to embark on an exciting journey!! Part of my job is to make sure this is an enjoyable and empowering one. I have been a midwife for 10+ years and have worked across all spectrums of maternity care from home birth to tertiary level hospital care, birthing units and overseas. I work closely with my partner Michelle Kingston-White and together we offer our clients a compassionate and empowering team approach to providing your maternity ca...	Home: +61-274593087 Mobile: +61-274593087
Kirstin Rouse	Congratulations on your pregnancy! I have been a midwife in Hamilton for 8 years now, having worked in both the hospital and community setting. This is such an exciting time in your life, where you are going to have lots of questions, learning, smiles and tears as you travel towards parenthood. I love being part of this process and seeing families grow. I work from a clinic based in Hamilton East, but am happy to look after families in surrounding districts.	Mobile: +64-272342321
Sue Holdom	I am an experienced midwife who lives in the country, and particularly enjoys providing care for other rural women. I believe good care requires partnership with women and their 'significant others', with clients being the decision makers, and my job revolving around clinical care and education / information provision. I really enjoy watching women grow during their pregnancies - not just physically (!!) but in terms of their knowledge, and confidence that they will be the best mum it is possib...	Home: +64-92336831 Mobile: +64-272224911 Work: +64-272224911
Christina Campbell	I am an experienced midwife practising for 22yrs. I am passionate about my role as a Lead Maternity Carer (Community Midwife) to give mothers/babies/families the best start possible in this unique journey of life. I promote healthy living and lifestyles to enhance this journey. For further information of me and my practice please view my website christinacampbell.co.nz	Mobile: +64-274260804
Angela Hindman	Pregnancy is individual, exciting and scary all rolled into one! Some women achieve a waterbirth whilst others need a multidisciplinary team of health carers at a tertiary hospital to attain a positive and safe outcome. Postnatally you also need to be well supported so if you would like home based midwife visits and live in the Piako district I may be of assistance to you. Please contact me on 0800 291 291 to discuss your 'fourth trimester' needs.	Mobile: 027-316-1241 Work: 027-316-1241
Kirsten Eady (nee Vaughan)	I have been working as an LMC midwife in Franklin for 14years. My focus is on promoting childbirth as an uncomplicated normal life event, and with this philosophy I encourage women to birth at Pukekohe Maternity Unit or at home. If the need arises for any reason and you are required to birth at Middlemore Hospital your care will be transferred to DHB specialist team. I understand that each woman is an individual and I strive to provide a positive birth experience for women, their babies and fami...	Mobile: 021-885-359 Work: 09-237-0640
Melissa Paekau-McBride	Melissa Paekau-McBride Midwife Profile Ko Karioi te Maunga Ko Whaingaroa to Moana Ko Tainui te Waka Ko Tainui te Iwi Ko Ngati Mahanga te Hapu Ko Motakotako te Marae Ko Melissa Paekau- McBride toku ingoa Kai ora I graduated in my Bachelor of Midwifery in 2004. I started my Midwifery journey by doing casual shifts at Waterford Birth Centre, while I was building up my case load. I was a self employed Midwife for 9 years and currently a core Midwife at Birthcare Huntly. I have s...	Mobile: +64-273055386
Michele Lord	Hi, I have been a Midwife in Hamilton for many years. I believe it is an honour and a privilege to share with woman and their families the childbearing journey. I have many years of amazing birth experiences, as well as being a mother myself. I think that pregnancy and birth is a miracle. I have access to River Ridge Birth Centre, Waterford Birth Centre and Waikato Hospital. I work at Maternal Instinct situated at River Ridge Clinic Rooms, 39 Von Tempsky Street, Hamilton.	Mobile: +64-272062710 Work: +64-272062710

Teresa Lindsey	My name is Teresa Lindsey I'm a self employed Midwife working in Tokoroa. Completing my Bachelor of Midwifery Degree 2012 at Waikato Institute of Technology (WINTeC) passing my Midwifery Registration Exam in March 2012. I moved to Tokoroa at the beginning of 2012 working as a self employed midwife. I am now back living in Tokoroa after spending nearly 12 months working in South Taranaki as a core midwife/self employed midwife. My Midwifery Philosophy - My Training has taught me many things, m...	Mobile: 0226563154
Summer O'Brien	Kia Ora, hello and congratulations on your pregnancy journey! Thank you for taking the time to read my profile. Please see bottom note about postnatal care only. My name is Summer O'Brien. I live in the Coromandel area and provide contemporary and holistic care for women and their family or whānau. I believe in creating partnership with you, which encompasses looking after your physical, emotional, cultural and spiritual health. I aim to spend ample time with you discussing your very own persona...	Cell phone: 021808325 Email: summer@voyagemidwife
Jo Simpson	I believe in woman's ability to birth. I have a natural birthing philosophy and support woman to birth in a way that nurtures them in their journey. Birth is sacred and how a baby comes into the world is important to me.	Mobile: +64-272039510
Michelle Kingston-White	I am a rural midwife servicing Hamilton, Te Awamutu and surrounding areas. I am married with three independent children and maintain a moderate caseload to create a balanced work/family life. I am a positive, supportive and energetic woman, aiming to provide sensitive and professional midwifery care throughout your pregnancy, birth and postnatal period. I have a strong belief in the ability of woman to birth without unnecessary interference, and that this is achieved by women feeling empowere...	Mobile: +64-274827670
Annah Young	Congratulations on your pregnancy! Kia ora, I am based in the Matamata Piako region and work in a team care approach with Val Walker and Cherie Coe as part of Matamata Midwives. We work 4 days a week each so in booking with one of us you have contact with the team members throughout your journey. We birth women at Pohlen primary maternity unit and I provide Homebirth also. Call Pohlen and our maternity aides can direct you or book appointments. I am available for postnatal care also in all t...	Home: +64- Mobile: Phone number
Penny Mason	I have been working with birthing women and their families for over 20 years, and feel that all women are entitled to quality care in a gentle, holistic and culturally sensitive manner. I care for 2-3 women a month and am happy to support women birthing in the environment of their choice, be that home, birth centre or hospital. Prior to studying midwifery, I worked as a childbirth educator in England and Australia and I worked with two midwives accompanying many families in the wonderful a...	Home: +64-78258811 Mobile: +64-210680615 Work: +64-210680615
Chantelle van Waveren	Pregnancy is such an exciting and unique time in our lives, this is why I love midwifery! I continue to work with a tight-knit group of rural midwives, who support me with knowledge and experience in order to provide a positive experience for you and your baby. I have been a part of this collective for the past 4 years. As a midwife, I hope to work with you to plan your care in a way that best suits you and your family's needs, while ensuring the safety of both your new addition and yours...	Pohlen Maternity: 07-881-9100 ext 3
Chaikee Tan	I am a registered nurse and midwife. I graduated as a midwife in 1976 trained under the British System. I have worked in many parts of the world in Malaysia, Sultanate of Brunei, Muscat, Sultanate of Oman in the Middle East, both in the public and private Hospitals as well as Petroleum Industrial Hospital. I was employed as a core midwife in Waikato Hospital in Hamilton since my arrival in NZ from 2001 to 2008 when I resigned to do self-employed midwife. I do both primary and secondary care for ...	Mobile: +64-274545279 Phone type: Phone number
Selina Berry	Hi there I am a rural midwife of 13 years who loves assisting families to grow and meet their special wee someone.... I aim to support woman to explore the journey of pregnancy birth and their post birth experience with research backed information and common sense from the generations of woman who have gone before. Due to our local Morrinsville birthing unit being closed a couple of years ago, I feel it is important for woman to continue to have the choice of birthing locally and will support mu...	Mobile: +64-275686963
Tracey White		Home: +64-78298341 Mobile: +64-274646026 Work: +64-274646024
Charlene Kelly	Kiaora I'm Charlene and I have been a midwife since 2002 graduating from Waikato Polytechnic as a Direct Entry Midwife. I am married with 4 children and 4 grandsons. My midwifery philosophy is "natural normal" emphasis being on natural. I believe there is a midwife for every woman. I am not for a lot of woman as my personality would best suit those women and whanau who like matter of fact and straight forwardness. I work in Partnership with Midwife Karen Walker in Taumarunui, and I look forw...	Mobile phone: 027 6429386

Melanie Levinsohn

Kia ora, I have worked as a midwife in the Raglan/ Whaingaroa area since 2003 supporting women and families with gentle, holistic care. I deeply care about the growth and transformation that is a part of birthing and offer loving respect to each woman and baby. I can offer support with natural and herbal remedies. I have birth pools available for women to use at home. I am a member of the homebirth assoc, the Waikato homebirth midwives collective and the New Zealand College of Midwives. I am ab...

Mobile: +64-21484807

Jill Arundel

Having a baby is a special and important time in your life. My midwifery care is aimed at supporting you and your family throughout this experience. Getting to know your midwife prior to the birth of your baby provides the opportunity for discussion of all aspects of care and making choices that suit your individual needs. I have been working as a midwife for the last 32 years in the King Country. I believe that birth is a normal life event. Women who enjoy good health in normal pregnancy can bi...

Home: +64-78967745
Mobile: +64-272869869