Mary McGrane	Congratulations on your pregnancy. Finding a midwife who you feel is right for you is an early and important part of preparing to be a mother. I believe pregnancy and childbirth is a truly precious time. In my work as a midwife I encourage women to stay healthy and confident in their ability to birth. In labour I work with women experiencing a normal birth. As well I hold epidural certification to ensure I am able to continue caring for women if their labour becomes more complex. ... Bridget Molloy	Hi, my name is Bridget Molloy (Biddy), I am a registered midwife living in Greymouth with my husband and two teenage children. I find it a privilege working in partnership with women during their transition to motherhood. I provide full midwifery care during the antenatal period, labour and birth and then post-birth visits at your home for up to six weeks. I share information with women regarding all aspects of midwifery care including antenatal screening, scans, optimal birthing positions to...	Mobile: 021345584
Wendy Tomasi	You're pregnant! How wonderful and congratulations. Hi I'm Wendy, as a mother I know that pregnancy and birth is an extraordinary normal part of a woman's life journey. As a midwife I understand and respect that every woman's pregnancy, birth and motherhood experience is unique. I would be delighted to provide you and your whānau with the personalised pregnancy, birth and postnatal care you are looking for during this special time. I am down to earth, caring and approachable and I have many ai...	Mobile: +64-027 2526747
Sheryl Joy Christian	I am Sheryl Joy Christian and I live at the Gloriavale Christian Community with nearly 600 members. Gloriavale is 75km inland from Greymouth at Lake Haupiri. I home birthed my 4 children and now have 16 grandchildren. I am a registered midwife and support women and their whānau in homebirth: water and land birth. My midwifery philosophy is that I believe birth is a wonderful part of life, with each woman's experience being unique to her and her family. Birth is a normal life event and I w... Jo-Anne Johns	I provide pregnancy care, birth care and care up to 6 weeks post-birth. I ensure that you feel empowered to make the right decisions for you and your family, and I support these by providing you with the necessary information using a professional and confidential approach. I also work with other health professionals if necessary to ensure you receive the care required should any complex issues arise.	Mobile: 0220103085
Lou Rubens	Kia Ora! I'm Lou and I'm an LMC (Lead Maternity Carer) midwife living and working on the beautiful West Coast. Having started my midwifery career in Christchurch, I moved to Hokitika almost 2 years ago and have settled here with my fiancé Jared and 2 sons (10 years and 8 months). I have always been interested in women's health issues and rights, and my interest in midwifery began as early as 7 years old when I was lucky enough to be able to attend a relative's homebirth in the North Island...
